The composition of the new Council is shown on the inside front cover of this edition of the Courier. As a result of an unexpected resignation from the Council, there will shortly be a vacancy and the Council will wish to 'co-opt' (subject to VOWH agreement) a new member. Jubilee Field

Pond. Following the felling of the three large poplars, a line of new hedging has been planted alongside Upper Common Lane. At the Annual Assembly we discussed what to do with the rest of the area by the pond, which has recently been tidied up and levelled; ideas to date include it becoming a wild flower area with a willow 'arbour'. It will need some regular work to prevent the area being taken over by brambles and docks. Any further ideas would be welcomed by the Parish Council.

New Playground Equipment. After much planning and negotiation, the protective fencing around the new play equipment was removed on 25 May, just in time for the bank holiday weekend and half term.

An 'opening ceremony' was held on 11 June 2024 and we were pleased to welcome David Johnston OBE, (our MP, until the General Election was called for 4 July), Cllr Kiera Bentley (Chair of Vale of White Horse District Council), Julie Perrin (S106 Officer for VoWHDC) and a number of representatives of the Matthews family and White Horse Show Trust.

We were able to introduce David to Amy and Sarah Heyburn (see photo overleaf). David's encouraging response to Amy's letter to him, on behalf of her sister, complaining about the lack of playground facilities for disabled children, had been forwarded to the Parish Council by VWHDC and we were able to use it in the planning application they required. Amy and Sarah were invited to cut the red ribbon to open the new swings (lower left photo overleaf).

It was also a good opportunity to thank the Matthews family for the generous S106 contribution to the village which resulted from the development of the Jacksmeadow estate. Over £103,000 has been received and most of it has now been spent on many improvements to the village, principally facilities on the Jubilee Field for the children of the village. Tom Matthews (lower right photo) was invited to cut the red ribbon to open the new Space net.

We are also extremely grateful to the White Horse Show Trust for their support of this project and many others in the past.

Field Tidy and Litter Pick. The next Jubilee Field Tidy and Litter picks are planned for Saturday and Sunday 26 / 27 October, with the autumn Litter Pick on Saturday 2 November. These dates will be confirmed in the Autumn edition of the Courier.

Jubilee Field Tidying by local residents

Village Maintenance

Village Maintenance Contract. We are pleased to report that a contract has been signed with GW Countryside Management Ltd to carry out some of the maintenance work around the village on Parish Council property. This is in addition, of course, to the Sports Club who mow the grass on the Jubilee Field and keep some other areas of the village tidy.

Maintenance Volunteers. If you would like to join the village maintenance group, please get in touch with the Parish Council Clerk (clerk@uffington.net) so we can get your name on the list (which is necessary for insurance purposes).

Hedges and Verges. The Council continues to minimise its ecological impact by leaving the hedges and verges uncut for as long as possible – except for junction splays where it would be dangerous to leave the verge uncut.

Allotments

Nigel Puddicombe

The Uffington allotments continue to be busy and the large majority of plots are now let. However, a small number of plots (or half plots) remain available for rent by residents of Uffington, Baulking and Woolstone. These plots each measure roughly 100 square yards and are plots that mainly have not been worked before but offer great potential as a reward for initial hard work. If you are a keen gardener or wish merely to enjoy the benefits of healthy exercise and growing your own fruit and vegetables, please contact either Barry Godsell (bandhg@hotmail.com) or Nigel Puddicombe (nigel.puddicombe@uffington.net), who will be happy to show you round and give you more details. The annual rental is £25 per full plot.

The Flooding of Winter 2023 / 2024

Simon Jenkins

Few will wish to be reminded of last winter, which was exceptionally wet by any standards, and resulted in extensive flooding in many parts of the country. However, it became clear that part of the problem in Uffington (apart from the sheer volume of water) arose from blockages in the Uffington Brook between Wharf Farm and Moor Mill Farm, which were preventing water getting away from the village as quickly as it used to. The Parish Council would like to express its gratitude publicly to Erik Penser, owner of Compton Beauchamp Estates, and to Daniel Crawford, the Estate Manager, and his staff for the work they have done to reduce the impact of future flooding between the Wharf and the railway line. As Daniel explained at the Annual Assembly, approval had to be sought from the Environment Agency for all clearance work, and as spring progressed, huge piles of cleared timber appeared in the adjacent field, extracted from the Uffington Brook.

OCC Highways also played their part. A team spent three days in the village clearing blockages from all the major culverts and pipes. For example, when they cleared the culvert under the road at the junction of Woolstone Road and Claypit Lane, the water level dropped by nine inches; hopefully that will mean less flooding in that area in future.

It is essential that flood water can get away from the village quickly, so here are two reminders:

1. All landowners and riparian owners in the village are requested to ensure that water can always flow freely in all ditches and streams.
2. All residents are reminded to take precautions if there is the slightest chance of your home being flooded – by definition, this cannot necessarily be anticipated. Excellent advice is given in the OCC 'Homeowners Guide to Flood Resilience' downloadable from: FloodGuide ForHomeowners.pdf.

The War Memorial

The village's War Memorial, situated in the churchyard of St Mary's, was a casualty of the gales brought in by Storm Henk in early January, losing the top sections. The repairs were completed in early April.

Sewage Pollution

The sad state of the amount of sewage pollution in the nations' waterways and beaches is well documented in the media, not least that caused by Thames Water (TW). Locally, we know that the TW monitoring device installed at the Uffington Sewage Treatment Works (STW) showed that raw sewage was discharged into the Uffington Brook for 329 hours in 2022 – a dry summer - and for 1,200 hours in 2023 – an increase of 87%. It is unusual nowadays for a rain storm NOT to trigger a discharge. In the last 18 months there has been a need for significant repair work at the Uffington STP, which included the need for all waste to be tankered to the Wantage STW for processing, throughout an 8-month period. Our village roads suffered from this frequent heavy traffic.

We have been attempting to maintain pressure on TW to improve the situation in Uffington, but the village represents a very small part of a huge problem. In this we have been assisted by the action group 'Windrush against Sewage Pollution' (WASP), who have a significant database and a wealth of experience of dealing with TW, which has helped us greatly in our approaches to TW.

A key question we have put to TW is whether our STW is of adequate capacity for the population it serves today, which we estimate at around 720 people. We have not received a clear response on this. The STW capacity has not been increased despite new developments in the village over the last 15-20 years.

TW started more work on the Uffington STW a couple of months ago. This will continue for an estimated further 10 months from now. There will be a need for further tankering of waste from the STW at some stage and we have asked that tankers be routed away from the village. We shall monitor the situation.

We are told the current work includes installation of a 7m³ balance tank to better regulate inflows, ensuring the current storm tank operates as intended. The project does NOT, however, increase the overall capacity of the plant, although we are told it should optimise the capacity and functionality of the storm tank .TW say in their most recent letter to us "The upgrade will improve [the STPW's] ability to treat the incoming volumes of sewage, reducing the need for untreated discharges in wet weather. We're also investigating the impact of groundwater on the sewer network in this area. We expect this location to meet all government targets for storm overflows by 2035-2040."

TW state that they consider any discharge of untreated sewage as unacceptable, and are working hard to make them unnecessary, but this will take time. The overflows are designed to operate automatically when the sewer network and sewage works are overwhelmed and release diluted wastewater into rivers rather than letting it back up into people's homes. It is the way the system is designed to operate; TW want to get to the point where they will never have to discharge any untreated sewage, but this will take time.

If you are concerned about the discharge of untreated sewage from the Uffington STW, and the amount of sewage pollution in the streams around Uffington, please continue to keep the pressure up on TW and lobby those in positions of responsibility.

NHS / Engage Consult Digital Café

On Thursday 12th September 2024 the Parish Council has arranged for a team from the White Horse Medical Practice to conduct a training session to help people understand and navigate the NHS and Engage Consult Apps. The session will be held at the Thomas Hughes Memorial Hall (Small Hall) from 10.30am – 12.30am.

Further details will be released as the event gets closer and we would appreciate anyone wishing to take part to contact the clerk via email clerk@uffington.net or call 07888 203145.

Readers may be aware that since the Hall fully reopened after Covid in 2022, the Hall Management Committee has been operating with myself as both Chairman and Bookings Manager. The Committee is now very pleased to announce and to welcome Gillian Ward as our new Chair. I know Gillian will bring valuable management experience and a fresh approach to how we manage the Hall and has the full support of the rest of the Committee.

On the subject of bookings, readers will also be aware we are in the process of moving from bookings being handled by Rose in the shop, to an on-line system. Rose and Dave are planning to retire and the shop will then be under new ownership. We are very grateful for the support that Rose, and her team, have given the Hall over many years; now is the time to wish her a very happy and peaceful retirement and relieve her of the pressure of keeping our Hall users happy, while collecting their hire fees.

Before we can complete the changeover, I will be putting all existing bookings into the new on-line system and sorting out the gremlins that come with a major change in operation. Regular hirers will be informed as this takes place and I expect there will be a transition period when “issues may arise.” Please bear with me. The Hallmaster software we have purchased is well established and already used successfully by other local community halls. It will be accessed through website and the familiar calendar will be replaced with one from which bookings are made. This will remove the issue with our current system, in which the online calendar is always “chasing” the bookings in the shop diary. The Hall website is www.thmh.co.uk but please don't try and use it to make a booking until we have confirmed the new system is fully operational! Users will be kept fully informed as we progress. As Bookings Manager, I will be contactable by email, geoff.rumble@btinternet.com, phone 07747 846197 or knock on the door.

Following our Spring report in the Courier, the Audio-Visual system in the small hall is now fully operational. This means, that both halls now have a wide suite of audio-visual systems, including TV and an excellent Wi-Fi signal as a result of the installation of a full fibre link, courtesy of Oxfordshire County Council. Full details of our facilities can be found on the website and I can offer advice and information to potential hirers and arrange a simple teach-in. It is not complicated but mis-use of the systems can result in problems for the next user. There is no extra hire charge for the equipment.

The Hall Management Committee remains a small group with a vacancy for someone to help with our promotion and advertising, to ensure best use is made of Facebook, and the Courier etc. Additionally, as we now have the equipment, we would like to find a volunteer to set up and manage a film club. There are existing clubs in Faringdon Corn Exchange, Letcombe Regis and Longworth Village Halls who could provide advice and support.

Looking to the future, a reminder the building will close for a week starting 19th August for a new floor surface to be laid in the lobby and downstairs storage area.

THE WHITE HORSE SHOW

Geoff Rumble

Just checking you have Sunday 25th and Monday 26th August in your diary in big bold letters! This will be the third Show since the Covid closures and the Committee is planning to prove that success comes in threes.

Now we know there are those who will say “Not the same old things as last time!” but there are others who will complain if they turn up, pay their entrance fee and find one of their favourite attractions has been dropped. So rest assured, there will be plenty of the events and displays that our regular supporters know and want. If you want Steam Engines, Classic Vehicles, Heavy Horses, Model Boats, Clay Pigeon Shooting, Birds of Prey, a Battle of Britain flypast, the Ukey Dukes to serenade those relaxing in the beer tent.....

You name it and it will be there. And of course, love him or hate him, Professor Crump.

And for those who want something different and new for their entrance fee, I am promised you will not be disappointed. Reading-based Rebellion Re-enactment will display Skill at Arms - on horseback! Witney-based shepherd Bob Hogg will show the marvel of the bond between man and sheepdog. A surprise event will be an unusual version of the Grand National, but to find out more, you will have to either pay to get in or join the large band of helpers who earn a free entry by doing a two-hour stint on the entry gates and car parking.

The Show committee is a small group of people who put it together each year and this would not be possible without the support of many volunteers to help do the groundwork in the week leading up to the Show, looking after entry gates, car parking and other supervision during the Show, then take it all down when the Show is over.

Please check the Show dates are on your calendar – Sunday 25th and Monday 26th August - and please be ready to help. Don't forget - two hours of your time as a volunteer gets you free entry to the Show.

For those who will be paying to come to the Show, you will be able to pay in advance on-line at whitehorseshow.co.uk or by credit card at the entrance gate.

THE WHITE HORSE SHOW TRUST

Gillian Ward

The annual White Horse Show was initially established to raise funds for a new village hall for Uffington. The first Show was in 1972. Over time, the objectives of the show have been adjusted to reflect the support given by surrounding villagers and today the White Horse Show aims to raise funds for groups and charities based in the Parishes of Uffington, Baulking, Woolstone and Kingston Lisle. Details of how to apply for a grant can be found on the Uffington Parish council website: www.uffington.net/whs

Recent grants from the Show have included:

Uffington Parish Council (Gates)	£1,577.50
Uffington Players – Mixing Desk	£1,400.00
Uffington Guides – Tables	£1,400.00
Uffington Cricket Club – Mowers	£3,894.00
UBW Minibus	£10,000.00
Jubilee Field Play equipment	£7,000.00
THMH – Flooring Refurbishment	£3,025.00

Funds have also been set aside to support the refurbishment of the St Mary's church clock.

The success of the Show, and therefore the funds raised, is very much governed by the weather and the support of volunteers. The 2023 White Horse Show raised a profit, after operating costs etc of £29,607. With good weather and the support of our volunteers we hope to replicate this success in 2024.

This year's White Horse Show will be held on 25 and 26 August. Information can be found at www.whitehorseshow.co.uk. The Organising Committee will be looking for support and the web page: www.uffington.net/whs has a link from where you can email offers of support.

COMMUNITY MINIBUS

John Hatcher

The new minibus was duly delivered, as forecast in the Spring edition of the Courier. It is fair to say that it has gone down very well with both passengers and drivers.

A generous grant from the Berkshire Masonic Charity completed our funding, and we are most grateful for their support of the project.

The minibus was put on show at the Uffington Farmers Market, at which it attracted considerable interest from villagers, and we welcomed representatives from our sponsors to the event.

We are delighted that three new volunteers have joined our team in response to our calls for help - Hugh Baxter, Robert Purdie and Rob Williams - and we are so pleased that Lorraine Hart has been able to rejoin us. A great way to start things off with the new minibus!

We look forward to welcoming more new passengers to our Wednesday and Friday morning services to Wantage. We collect passengers at points convenient for them, and call at Wantage Town Square, Sainsbury's, and the Medical Centre if required. Please contact us at the address below to start using the services.

Villagers and organisations are already using the new minibus for their own purposes and we very much hope this will continue to increase.

For information or bookings please contact us at ubwminibus@outlook.com

PUTTING ON A SHOW

Christine Holley

The Uffington Players would like to thank everyone who came to support us during the pantomime in February. We have had some very nice feedback following the production.

We are now starting to plan our next productions. We are hoping to be able to put something on in October this year. Further information will go out once we have decided.

We will also be thinking about pantomime 2025. If you think you would like to be involved in future productions, on stage or behind the scenes, or would like further information, please contact me by email christineholley28@hotmail.co.uk

In the week beginning 24th June, Uffington C of E Primary School celebrated their annual White Horse Week. We used this week to think about the school vision 'Everyone Matters,' the theological underpinning of the vision through the story of The Lost Sheep and our new school values of Love, Respect and Resilience. Our previous values of honesty and courage pushed the school in the right direction and now, based on our current context, we have decided to continue developing the value of honesty, as part of respect. Courage is shown by the community of Uffington and there is a real willingness to have a go so we want to develop this further through the value of resilience. Our understanding of love will continue to be developed as a guiding principle for all that we do.

We spent Monday exploring the vision in great detail, focussing on the fact that the story of the Lost Sheep is not about sheep. As a parable it allows us to think about ourselves as the sheep and the shepherd as God and that we all matter to God, like the sheep did to the shepherd. We also all talked about mattering to the community of Uffington School.

On Tuesday, we looked at the value of love and what this means to us including self-love, loving family and loving friends.

On Wednesday, we explored respect. We also all took a trip to the Uffington Museum where we were welcomed by Karen and had an amazing time completing quizzes and hunting out dragons.

On Thursday, we explored the value of resilience. As part of our focus on resilience, throughout the week we all took a visit to White Horse Hill. The older children spent their time scouring the horse and the younger children enjoyed a walk in the sunshine and some time exploring the area - some for the first time.

On Friday, we looked at spirituality and what this means to us. We learnt about the concept of windows, mirrors and doors (more information can be found on the school website). We also all started using journals this week which can be used as part of developing our spirituality. We also finished the week off with a visit from an immersive theatre which took us on adventures we could only imagine doing. There was a real sense of awe and wonder. We welcomed our families to join in with this experience at the end of the day.

There are lots of photographs of our adventures on the school website.
